the entertainment of the evening.

Fire Does Big Damage To Ypsilanti Hay Press

The Ypsilanti Hay Press company, Ypsilanti, incorporated for $50,000, was partially destroyed by fire Thursday evening, with a loss estimated at $25,000, only partially insured. A large quantity of inflammable material caused flames to leap into the air over 100 feet. Charles M. Holmes of Ypsilanti is secretary and treasurer of the company.

Mr. Holmer's son, Glen, has been holding down a guard position with the Jackson News basketball team and he has had charge of the factory during his father's recent illness.

No Beer, No Work Is